NEWS RELEASE

On Sunday November 21st, 2004, the Connecticut State Police of Troop K Colchester conducted a Food Drive in the town of Colchester at two locations, being Troop K and the Stop & Shop Supermarket.

The donations of this Food drive were given to the Town of Colchester Social Services to replenish their food Bank for the upcoming Holiday Season.

As a result of the combined efforts of the Troopers of Troop K and students from Bacon Academy of Colchester, the drive was able to collect the following items to be given to the Colchester Social Services to replenish the Food Bank for the Holiday Season.

144 crates / cases of non-perishable food

186 turkeys

and approx. $900.00 of cash donations.
